Welcome to the May edition of the Edison Insight. We now have over 400 companies under coverage, of which 157 are profiled in this edition. Healthcare companies are now covered separately in Edison Healthcare Insight. Click here to view the latest edition.

The book opens with a strategy piece from Alastair George, who believes that global equity markets are being supported by declining inflation expectations pushing bond yields lower and consensus forecast for profits growth of 10%, which have remained intact throughout this year. While this Goldilocks period for equities may continue, there is a mutual inconsistency in expecting both robust profits growth and ultra-low bond yields to persist in the medium term. Therefore, even if our base case is for markets to gradually drift higher in the short term, we continue to believe equity risk should be selective, focusing on specific catalysts or event-driven situations as the current low-volatility environment is likely to incentivise further M&A activity.

This month we have added Banca Sistema, Marshall Motor Holdings and Nanoco to the company profiles.
