

Strategy reports business plans, sector reports and market studies

Edison supports clients to conduct strategic reviews and consider expansion as well as investment in new sectors and new geographies. Each report is tailored to the client's needs and individual circumstances.

Target: Public and private companies

The support we offer can include providing a broad overview of the investment landscape (e.g. E&P in Latin America), as well as deep dive analysis of specialist sectors (e.g. MedTech, AdTech, Oncology) or quarterly / annual coverage of commodities e.g. the gold sector.

Business plans

- Helping time-poor management teams document their plan for business growth. Ensuring that the forecasts are consistent and flow from clear assumptions to present the strongest case to put forward to stakeholders.

Strategy reports

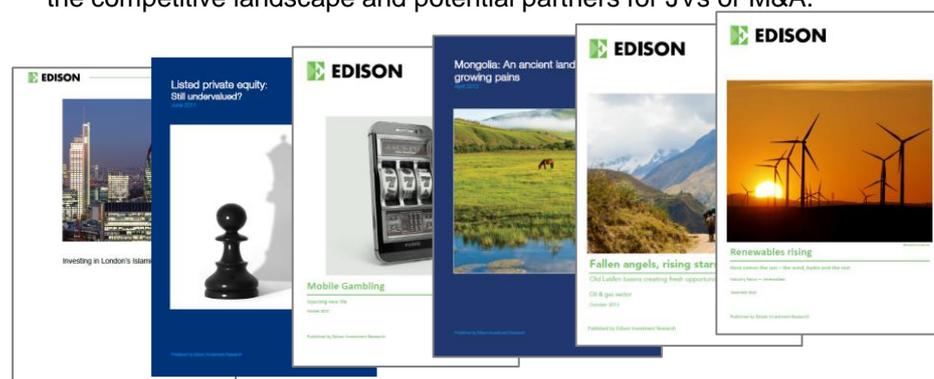

- Edison provides strategic reviews, reviewing a client's market position, analysing sector leaders, highlighting sector best practice and suggesting a direction for future growth and KPIs against which to measure progress.

Sector reports

- As companies consider expansion and investment into new sectors, Edison can use its sector insight to offer a considered and well-structured overview of the market, its drivers, prospects and competitive landscape.

Market studies

- Edison can offer a snapshot of overseas markets, providing an overview of the competitive landscape and potential partners for JVs or M&A.
