

Why you can still access our research

- The vast majority of our research is issuer sponsored or commissioned by a third party and is made freely available through a range of channels – thus meeting the definition of an acceptable non-monetary benefit as set out in FCA PS 17-14 2.3A.19 R 5(b).
- Non-commissioned, one-page results notes (QuickViews) with no forecasts or valuation are classified as non-substantive materials as per FCA PS17-14 2.3A.22 G (1).
- Our economic commentary is widely disseminated and per the EMSA Q&A Q8, Answer 8 is classified as a justified non-monetary benefit (see last para of page 53 on the following document:
https://www.esma.europa.eu/sites/default/files/library/esma35-43-349_mifid_ii_qas_on_investor_protection_topics.pdf)
- We do not accept payment from our readership for content we freely disseminate.
- Edison has no execution activities – we do not make markets or trade in stocks.
